Vienna, February 24.

THE 21st Instant, the 3 Regiments of Horse of Trautmansdorf, Vaubonne, 2nd Sereni, arriv'd in our Suburbs, with 300 Foot of the Regiment of Tattenbach, from Bavaria; and having rested 2 Days, continu'd their March to Walpherstorf, where they are to pass in Review, and wait till the Foot expect'd from Bavaria by Water arrive; and then are to march all together, to reinforce the Body of Troops commanded by General Palfi Ban of Croatia, who continues on the Leytha in the Neighbourhood of Newstadt. Advice is come, that General Hanibal Heister has gain'd a great Advantage over the Malecontents, having surpriz'd one of their Regiments, and kill'd or taken the greatest Part; Peterkowitsch, a Major-General among the Malecontents, being one of the Prisoners.

Vienna, Feb. 27. The Troops that march'd from our Suburbs a few Days ago, have joyn'd those commanded by General Palfi, near Newstadt. We have receiv'd Advice, that Count Herberstein, with a Body of Germans and Rascians which he had drawn together near Simontorna, has attack'd and defeated several thousand Malecontents at Jzal; and that he has taken from them 10 Pieces of Cannon, 6 Mortars, a great Quantity of Ammunition, and all their Baggage, with a great Number of Cattle. A Detachment of the Malecontents, has plunder'd and burnt Altemoerg on the Frontier of lower Austria. Count Schlick, Commissary General of the Troops employ'd against the Hungarian Malecontents, is diligently providing all things necessary for the Army in Transilvania. Prince Lewis of Baden has complain'd by his Resident at this Court, that sufficient Care is not taken to provide all things necessary to enable the Army of the Empire to act with Vigour, and makes pressing Instances for Redress. The Body of Men under General Palfi will be commanded by Count Guido Scaremberg, as soon as he has recover'd his Strength; and General Kriechbaum, who did the Emperor so good Service against the Rebels of Bavaria, will serve under him. The Governour of Deva in Transilvania, has offer'd to surrender upon Capitulation, being in Want of Provisions; but General Rabutin will receive him and his Garrison on no other Terms than at Discretion. 'Tis reported Prince Ragorski has lately receiv'd 300000 Crowns from the King of France.

Vienna, March 3. General Cusani and Count Serau arriv'd here the 28th of February from Transilvania; They report that all goes well in that Principality; that the Army under General Herbeville will keep in their Quarters till further Orders; and that a Detachment continues the Siege of Deva. Count Rechteren, arriv'd here the same Day from Tirnau, and with him the Hungarian Deputy Ocolucciani. Since their Arrival they have had several Conferences with the Emperor's Ministers and

Mr. Stepney, concerning the Proposals of the Malecontents for a Suspension of Arms for a Time; and 'tis said they have represent'd to the Prince of Salis, his Imperial Majesty's chief Minister, the Necessity of agreeing to such a Suspension, that the chief Leaders of the Malecontents, who are now forc'd to keep at the Head of their Troops, may assist in Person at a new Congress, and therein treat effectually of the Accommodation so long talk'd of. We have receiv'd a Confirmation, that Count Herberstein has taken by Assault the Fort of Siclos situat beyond Five Churches, and defeated a Body of 2000 Men the Malecontents had there, having ruin'd all their Foot, and taken their Cannon and Baggage: Their Horse that fled suffer'd great Loss likewise in the hot Pursuit that was made after them; and Bothiani and Hildebrand that commanded them, had much ado to escape. Yesterday several Hundred Waggons, loaded with Provisions and Forrage, were sent from hence to General Palfi's Forces; and 'tis given out, that as soon as he has receiv'd this Convoy, he will march to joyn near St. Gothar the Body of Troops commanded by General Hanibal Heister, in order to advance towards Oedenbourg and fall upon the Malecontents that keep that Place block'd up. M. Oppenheimer the Jew, having undertaken to furnish 1800 Horses for recruiting the Imperial Cavalry in Italy, 40000 Shirts, 20000 pair of Shooes, a certain Number of Musquets, a certain Quantity of Powder, and other Stores of War, Assignments are given him upon the Revenues of Bohemia and Moravia. 'Tis said M. Hamel Bruyninx, Envoy of the States General, was detain'd at Tirnau by Sickness from coming hither with Count Rechteren. The Emperor has newly nominated the 5 following Persons to be of his Privy Council, viz. Count Martinitz, Count Guido Scaremberg, Count Schlick, Count Schonborn Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, and the Marquis de Prie late Envoy of the Duke of Savoy to this Court, but who has quitted his Royal Highness's Service for the Emperor's, and is to be sent to Italy in the Quality of Commissary General of Prince Eugene's Army.

Vienna, March 6. Leopold Count Lamberg, who was lately the Emperor's Ambassador at the Court of Rome, is nominated to go in the Quality of Envoy to King Charles III of Spain. The 12th of this Month Prince Eugene's Servants and Baggage set out from hence for the Army in Lombardy, and his Highness himself will be going the 16th. The 3d Instant came Advice, that the Malecontents had made a new Irruption into Moravia, with a Body of 6000 Foot and 1000 Horse commanded by M. Oskay and several other Officers: That they had pillag'd and burnt the Village of Dresingen, not sparing even the Church: That they carried off with them several Prisoners and some hundred Head of Cattle: And that they had had the Cruelty to bind one of their Prisoners, Lieutenant Ro... to a Post, and burn him alive. They left side 200 Men in this Incursion, by the Resistance made for 2 Hours by an Officer

Janiski with 40 Hussars. 'Tis talk'd the Emperor has signified to Count Rechteren, that he is dispos'd to agree to a Suspension of Arms with the Malecontents: And the Count waits for his Imperial Majesty's express Resolution thereupon, in Writing, that he may carry it to Ternau. Yesterday Count Palfi broke up with his Body of Troops from the Neighbourhood of Newstadt, to march to the Relief of Oedenbourg. 'Tis now said Count Guido Staremburg will speedily return to Italy.
